Position Announcement Assistant Professor in Applied Statistics

Department: Tourism and Hospitality Management
Post Type: 5-year contract, renewable, full-time
Payscale: Assistant Professor, €55,000 per annum;
additional allowances are available

Description

We are seeking outstanding candidates for the position of an Assistant Professor in Applied Statistics who will teach in MODUL University's Bachelor and Master programs, and lead quantitative research projects relevant to our three management science areas (Tourism and Hospitality Management, New Media Technology, and Public Governance and Management).

MODUL University Vienna is a recently founded private university with an international orientation. It is located on top of Kahlenberg, a scenic hill overlooking Vienna. MODUL University Vienna combines a strong academic foundation with state-of-the-art curricula and a commitment to innovation and sustainability as key drivers of success in a dynamic and knowledge-based society. Successful candidates are expected to make significant contributions to the University's teaching and research activities.

Requirements

- A formal qualification (PhD) in statistics or a related area, and a strong track record in applied research.
- Knowledge of management sciences, or enthusiasm to develop expertise in travel and tourism, new media technology and public governance.
- Teaching experience in English and the ability to relate to students.

- Ambition to produce internationally recognized research output, and willingness to collaborate within an interdisciplinary team.
- It is desirable to have experience in an economic research environment if trained as a statistician, or vice-versa.

The position is available from 1 August 2007, or from a mutually agreed later date. The appointee will be expected to take a full part in research, teaching (4 hours per semester) and other activities of the University.

For details of the position, please contact Dr Karl Wöber, Institute for Tourism and Leisure Studies, Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration, phone: ++43-1-31336-4470, E-Mail: karl.woeber@wu-wien.ac.at.

Candidates should send their applications (curriculum vitae, list of publications, photograph) to the Deputy Managing Director, Ms Wilma Habitzl, Peter-Jordan Straße 78, A-1190 Vienna. Electronic applications are preferred and can be sent to office@modul.ac.at. The closing date for applications is Monday 18th June 2007.

MODUL University Vienna is an equal opportunity employer and seeks to increase the number of its female faculty members. Therefore qualified women are strongly encouraged to apply. In case of equal qualification, female candidates will be given preference.
